

www. oaem. ca

COVID, ONE YEAR LATER

This session is designed to provide a high level SITREP of impacts and lessons learned that can be shared amongst the Emergency Management Community in Ontario.

Each speaker will have 20 minutes to review sector / program specific updates and lessons learned in their organization's response to COVID 19.

OAEM Members: No Fee Non Members: 20.00

Registration Details at: [www. oaem. ca](http://www. oaem. ca)

Wednesday, Mar 10, 2021

12:00pm – 1:30pm

Register at [www. oaem. ca](http://www. oaem. ca)

This event qualifies for 1.0 Hours of Continuing Professional Development Credits

EVENT SPEAKERS:

Managing an outbreak while delivering critical services - Lessons Learned

JOHN KLICH, Toronto Ambulance Communications Centre

Metrolinx Incident Command Team and Staying Relevant during a Pandemic – Lessons Learned and Helping Out!

ANNA EMPEY, Emergency Management Specialist, Metrolinx Incident Command Team Planning Chief

Responding to COVID-19: Integrated Emergency Management and Business Continuity Structure

SEAN BERTLEFF, Program Manager, Emergency Training, Exercises and Public Education

TAMMY POPPER, Corporate Business Continuity Program Specialist; York Region Emergency Management

365 Days in the EOC – Toronto's response to COVID-19

JENNIFER SMYSNUIK, Manager Toronto Office of Emergency Management